

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BUSINESS PARTNERS OF “HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX” LTD

CONTENT

1. Our Business Partners

2. Scope of application

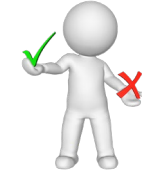

3. General guidelines

4. Ethical behavior

5. Honesty in business

6. Non stop to achievement

7. Due diligence

8. Compliance with applicable laws

9. Bribery and corruption

10. Gifts and hospitality expenses

11. Confidentiality and personal data protection

12. Anti-competitive actions

13. Conflict of interest

14. Intellectual property

CONTENT

15. Money laundering

16. Prohibition of oral contracts

17. International trade and economic sanctions

18. Human rights

19. Forced labor

20. Child labor

21. Openness and honesty in relationships

22. Non-discrimination

23. Health and safety

24. Environmental protection and pollution prevention

25. Responsible approach to sourcing mineral raw materials

26. Accounting accuracy and completeness

27. Compliance Program for the Code

28. Reporting Violations

1. Our Business Partners

In connection with the development of comprehensive connections in the global economy, HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX strives to implement the best supply chain system. We value relationships with our suppliers, agents, contractors, intermediaries, dealers, distributors, third-party service providers and other business partners (collectively, "Business Partners") who provide high-quality, innovative products and services at competitive prices, help reduce the risks of our business, comply with all applicable laws, adhere to the highest ethical standards, create real added value for our customers (buyers) and, at a minimum, meet the requirements set out in the Code.

2. Scope of application

This Code applies to Business Partners, as well as their subsidiaries, affiliates, subcontractors and agents acting as licensed or authorized distributors or official dealers and selling their products and services of HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX. We insist that Business Partners demand from their partners an appropriate level of recognition of the principles of this Code.

3. General guidelines

By acting as a socially responsible company, respecting human rights and adhering to the highest standards of ethical conduct and professional activity, HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX improves business performance in the long term. We are fully committed to these principles and require our Business Partners to share this commitment and fulfill the obligations set out in this Code. This Code has been developed taking into account the best practices of the pharmaceutical industry, other international, legislative and regulatory requirements.

4. Ethical behavior

HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX and its Business Partners operate in many promising and dynamic markets that offer exceptional opportunities, but also pose significant risks from both an ethical and operational perspective. The best way to manage such risks is to comply with all applicable laws, including anti-corruption and bribery laws in the Republic of Uzbekistan, the United States, the United Kingdom and the European Union. Neither HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX nor its Business Partners engage in any activity or assume any risks that would result in unethical consequences or breach of applicable laws.

5. Honesty in business

We recognize the absolute value of integrity in behavior and the importance it has for our business in both the short and long term. These are not just words. These are our values. Honesty and business ethics matter. If you do the right thing under any circumstances, it will always be appreciated. We work continuously with our Business Partners to improve both our business performance and compliance with this Code. Integrity is the cornerstone of our culture. Being recognized as a leader in values and integrity is the most important driving force behind HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX's reputation and the foundation of our success. The behavior of Business Partners affects HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX's reputation. If a Business Partner does not comply with the standards of the Code, they will not be a preferred counterparty for HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX in future orders and existing business relationships with them may be partially or completely terminated.

6. Non stop to achievement

The specific requirements set out in the Code represent minimum standards for Business Partners. We encourage Business Partners to adhere to even higher standards, even if they are not provided for by the current legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

7. Due Diligence

When selecting Business Partners, HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX conducts a check to the required extent, taking into account the existing risks. All Business Partners undergo an anti-corruption check before concluding an agreement. Business Partners are required to assist in the check by HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX by fully filling out all questionnaires and forms, promptly providing the requested documentation and transparent information about the owners and affiliates.

8. Compliance with applicable laws

Business partners must comply with all applicable laws, regulations and standards of the countries in which they operate. If applicable law and the Code govern the same issue and do not conflict, the stricter standard applies. If any requirement of the Code conflicts with applicable laws, the strictest standard that does not conflict with applicable laws applies.

9. Bribery and corruption

We state clearly: HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX does not tolerate corruption and bribery in any form.

HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX strictly prohibits corruption, bribery, commercial bribery, fraud, embezzlement, theft and waste. Business Partners are required to comply with all applicable anti-corruption laws and maintain proper records that reflect their transactions and do not contain false or misleading information. Business Partners undertake not to give, offer, solicit or agree to accept money or anything else of value from anyone directly or indirectly through another person in order to obtain an improper advantage for HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX.

Business Partners are expected to implement and maintain their own anti-corruption programs in order to prevent and deter illegal activities and potential violations of the law.

10. Gifts and hospitality expenses

Business partners also undertake not to offer gifts, organize entertainment events or provide other benefits, directly or indirectly, to employees or representatives of HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX with the purpose of influencing them, as well as not to offer HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX employees any gifts or organize entertainment events, regardless of cost, during negotiations, a tender procedure or the conclusion of an agreement with the winner of the tender.

11. Confidentiality and personal data protection

Business partners are obliged to maintain confidentiality with respect to all information concerning the business activities of HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX, its contracts, projects, financial situation or performance, unless otherwise expressly agreed with HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX. Business partners are obliged to meet the reasonable expectations of the persons with whom they do business with respect to the protection of personal data. Business partners are obliged to comply with laws and regulations regarding the privacy and security of information in connection with the collection, processing and transfer of personal data. Business partners are obliged to ensure the secure storage of personal data of customers and to exclude the possibility of its disclosure. Business partners are obliged to ensure adequate data protection, the reliability of data security systems and adequate supervision of the actions of their employees working with the personal data of HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX.

12. Anti-competitive actions

Business partners undertake not to violate competition laws and antitrust requirements, and not to collude with the purpose of violating them. Business partners are obliged to comply with standards of fair business conduct, advertising and competition.

13. Conflict of interest

Business partners are required to disclose to HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX any actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interest that may be relevant to HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX. “Conflict of interest” means any circumstance, actual, potential or perceived, by virtue of which a party may place its financial or personal interests above its obligations or by virtue of which such party’s judgment, decisions or actions may be biased. Business partners should avoid any conflicts of interest that may adversely affect the business relationship.

14. Intellectual property

Business partners are obliged to respect intellectual property rights. The procedure for transferring technical solutions by Business partners must ensure the protection of intellectual property rights.

15. Money laundering

Business Partners are required to vigorously combat any form of money laundering and take steps to ensure that financial transactions conducted by Business Partners are not used by third parties for the purpose of money laundering.

16. Prohibition of oral contracts

HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX prohibits the conclusion of transactions with Business Partners in oral form. All terms of the offer of services and delivery of goods to HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX are subject to agreement before the start of the performance of contractual obligations and are recorded in writing.

17. International trade and economic sanctions

Business Partners must comply with applicable international trade laws and regulations (including import/re-import and export/re-export controls) and economic sanctions. Business Partners agree not to conduct business with parties or in jurisdictions where applicable laws or regulations prohibit transactions.

18. Human rights

Business partners are obligated to respect and uphold human rights as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights adopted by the United Nations. Business partners are obligated to refrain from assisting in any violation of human rights and are obligated to respect the personal dignity, privacy and rights of every person at all times. Business partners are obligated to have zero tolerance for any form of unacceptable treatment of workers, including, but not limited to, moral pressure, physical abuse, violation of the rights of persons with disabilities, slavery and sexual harassment.

19. Forced labor

Business Partners shall not use any form of forced labor, debt bondage, involuntary or compulsory labor. Business Partners may not require workers to surrender government-issued identification, passports or work permits as a condition of employment. Employment relationships between Business Partners and their workers must be voluntary and not based on threats, intimidation or coercion.

20. Child labor

Business partners shall not use child labor. Unless applicable law sets a minimum age for employment, “child” means any person under 15 years of age. The minimum age for employment is specified in the conventions of the International Labor Organization (ILO).

21. Openness and honesty in relationships

Business partners shall maintain open and honest relations between employees and management, free from fear of retaliation, revenge, intimidation or harassment, and shall, to the extent possible within the framework of the law, recognize employees' right to freedom of association.

22. Non-discrimination

Business partners must not engage in harassment or unlawful discrimination against workers. Business partners must not discriminate on the basis of membership in any protected category or on the basis of age, race, color, ethnicity, indigenous status, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, pregnancy, health, religion, social origin or status, political affiliation, membership in trade associations or trade unions, marital status or veteran status in hiring or employment, such as promotion, awards and access to training.

23. Health and safety

In accordance with international standards, national laws and regulations, Business Partners are required to create a healthy and safe working environment. The obligations regarding occupational health and safety extend to all persons under the control of the Business Partner, including employees and contractors working on the premises of the Business Partner. All fatal accidents and serious injury incidents occurring on the premises of HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX or in relation to work carried out for HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX must be reported.

24. Environmental protection and pollution prevention

Business partners are obliged to act in accordance with applicable environmental standards and to comply with applicable environmental laws, demonstrating due responsibility in their work. In countries with less developed or inadequately applied legislation, Business partners are obliged to strive to minimize environmental pollution. Innovative changes in products and services that improve the environmental or social situation, as well as the use of environmentally friendly technologies, should be supported in every possible way. Business partners are obliged to take measures to correct the situation in those areas of work that entail adverse consequences for the life and health of people, nature and the environment.

25. Responsible approach to sourcing mineral raw materials

Business partners are required to take reasonable steps to ensure that their products do not contain raw materials that are directly or indirectly financed by armed groups involved in human rights abuses.

26. Accounting accuracy and completeness

Business partners are obliged to prevent falsification of accounting data, as well as distortion of information about the conditions and methods of work.

27. Compliance Program for the Code

Business Partners shall strive to establish a program or system addressing the issues covered by this Code, if such a system has not already been established within the existing structure of the Business Partner. Such program or system shall be designed to ensure compliance with this Code. Its purpose shall be to reduce operational risks associated with this Code. Such program or system shall be based on the principle of continuous improvement.

28. Reporting Violations

Business Partners are required to promptly report potential or known violations of this Code. If you have any questions about this Code, or believe that someone may have violated it, please contact the Compliance officer at hurshida_enter@mail.ru or the hotline at +99891-609-47-57. All reports will be given due consideration and, where necessary, investigated. HURSHIDA ENTER DELUX does not accept retaliation against anyone who is trying to do the right thing by reporting a problem. Anyone who reports possible misconduct in good faith and subsequently experiences retaliation or other action against them for reporting a problem should promptly report it through the channels specified above.